

Other Securities – Saint Elizabeth accepts gifts of bonds that require a “holding” period. They will be cashed when the holding period has expired.

Saint Elizabeth will not accept the following securities as gifts:

- Securities that are accessible or that in any way could create a liability;
- Securities that, by their nature, may not be assigned (such as Series “E” Savings Bonds);
- Securities that, on investigation, have no apparent value.