Saint Elizabeth Community purchases Cathleen Naughton Associates

East Greenwich> Saint Elizabeth Community has purchased Cathleen Naughton Associates, a provider of home care services with offices in Providence and Wakefield. Cathleen Naughton Assoc. provides skilled nursing and rehab care, private duty care, geriatric care management and concierge services in Rhode Island. The agency bills insurers including Medicare and private insurers and also has private pay clients.

“When we were searching for a home care provider to join our organization,” says Steven J. Horowitz, President and CEO Saint Elizabeth Community, “we consistently heard that Cathleen Naughton Associates was known for delivering high quality services.” He continues, “Saint Elizabeth Community’s mission is to provide exceptional, compassionate care in an array of settings, and having Cathleen Naughton Associates join our organization is in keeping with our mission and expands the array of settings in which we provide care.”

Cathleen Naughton Associates was founded in 1978 By Cathleen Naughton, a Registered Nurse with a strong public health background. Today it is managed by Caroline Naughton Rumowicz, Cathleen’s daughter who earned her undergraduate degree at Bryant University and her Master’s in Health Services Administration from Salve Regina University. Cathleen Naughton Associates will continue to do business under its name and continue to provide high quality home care services. Formerly a for profit organization, Cathleen Naughton has applied for and been approved to operate as a not-for-profit.

Saint Elizabeth Community is a provider of a full array of care and services to seniors and adults with disabilities with 12 Rhode Island locations that include:

Saint Elizabeth Home- East Greenwich
